FEBRUARY FILM FESTIVAL, ARTIST MARKETPLACE, & MORE!

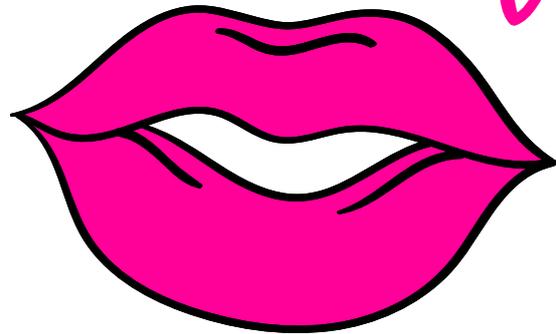

BY LEE HARRISON DANIEL

Happy February, everyone!

It's Lee, one of the Creative Producers here at First Kiss, writing to update you on what we've been up to and what you have to look forward to from us this month!

In January, we held our first meeting with FKT's 2021 Resident Artists! This group will be gathering once a month and working on projects supported by First Kiss all year long. We couldn't be more excited to introduce you to this amazing group of creators and their work. Make sure to check out our Instagram this week where we'll be spotlighting a different resident every day!

We also just launched our Artist Marketplace on our website! With offerings ranging from handmade scarves to custom poetry to paper editing services, the Artist Marketplace is the perfect place to do some last minute Valentine's Day shopping (or treat yourself to something!), all while directly supporting FKT and the artists in our community. Head over to our website to see everything we have to offer. Happy shopping!

NOW FOR OUR UPCOMING EVENTS!

On February 11th, keep an eye out on our social media for some sweet treats from First Kiss and a sneak preview of what's in store for the coming months.

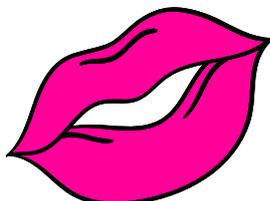

On February 20th and 21st, we'll be hosting our first ever February Film Festival, a two day celebration of short films from around the world, livestreamed on YouTube. The festival will begin at 8 pm eastern time both nights and run for about an hour and twenty minutes. Each night will feature a completely different bill of films, so be sure to tune in for both! More details, including ticketing info, coming very soon.

As always, we welcome you to check out FKT's official MERCH over on our Redbubble Page, and if you want to support the work we're doing, to consider becoming a subscriber (in exchange for cool perks like a shoutout in our programs, tickets to events, and free merch). Click here to learn all about it.

That's all for now!

Peace and love,

FKT
